

GLOBALTIES > Arkansas

BUILDING INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS FOR ARKANSAS

Global Ties News in Brief kakmadden@gmailcom Toni Carr, Exec. Dir. toni_carr1@hotmail.com March 2017

Foreign Policy Visitors, Mexican Law Enforcement Officers, Upcoming Programs and More!

Foreign Policy leaders from Italy, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain and the United Kingdom visit the Arkansas State Capitol

Our European guests arrived under the auspices of the International Visitor Leadership Program on themes of global trade trends framing U.S. foreign policy positions, social and political integration of immigrant and refugee groups, grassroots level interests and views on international issues and effects of foreign policies on state level security. They also found time to get lost on Pinnacle Mountain!

Bureau of International Narcotics & Law Enforcement Police Professionalization Exchange Mexico & Little Rock, Arkansas

Law Officers from Jalisco, Nuevo Leon, Zacatecas, Chihuahua, Hidalgo, Veracruz and Guanajuato meet their peers in Little Rock and Central Arkansas.

SAVE THE DATE

ArkansasGives.org
GROW THE LOVE

APRIL 6, 2017

BUT ONLY WHEN YOU DO!

Our operation depends primarily on financial support from the United States Department of State and that funding has been decreasing. Would you please consider a monetary contribution to Global Ties Arkansas this year in order for us to continue a program that has benefited our community as well as our neighbors abroad?

A donation made on April 6, 2017 through Arkansas Gives will provide an increase to your gift!

Please see the website
www.ArkansasGives.org

Upcoming Programs

Japan Technology	April
Young S.E. Asia Leaders	April
Bulgarian Youth	April
Zambia Public Service	April
Cultural Farm to Market	May
Europe Foreign Policy	June
International Labor Relations	July
International Accountability	July

Global Ties Arkansas invites and encourages your participation in these programs - as an individual or an organization - in presentations, mentoring, interaction, hospitality, inviting others!

And your suggestions are always WELCOME!

Please contact:
toni_carr1@hotmail.com

Global Ties Arkansas * 16 Toulouse Court * Little Rock, Arkansas * 72211
Check out our website at www.arkciv.org